

BIC METADATA
SUB-COMMITTEE & TASK & FINISH GROUPS
TERMS OF REFERENCE
MARCH 2013
UPDATED SEPTEMBER 2016

SUB-COMMITTEE

Overall remit of the BIC Metadata Sub-Committee:

To anticipate and interpret the needs of the entire data supply chain, this to include the whole data ecosystem and not be limited to bibliographic data. To ensure data models, tools and practices support new trading models and new technological environs both today and tomorrow; keeping in mind that books and book data are now an intrinsic part of the web, not simply on the web. To help BIC members implement and adopt data standards and best practice going forward and to raise awareness of the growing importance of the data ecosystem.

Reporting Line

The BIC Metadata Sub-Committee reports into, and carries out/is assigned work on behalf of the BIC Digital, BIC Print and BIC Libraries Committees. It may also influence Task & Finish Groups sitting under these Committees as appropriate and is expected to ensure the BIC Training Events & Communications Committee is kept up to date regarding areas of development/interest/concern.

Remit and Responsibilities of the BIC Metadata Sub-Committee:

- Ensure the Sub-Committee is at all times up to speed with the wider industry's digital trends
- Anticipate, interpret & prioritise the data needs of the industry
- Remain open to and aware of other media industries' practices where possible
- Promote a BIC approach and mobilise resource as and when required to research and provide solutions
- Drive & promote BIC solutions forward into the industry
- Establish "Task & Finish Groups" to tackle specific areas as required, ensuring appropriate industry representation on each
- Oversee the success and direction of these Task & Finish Groups – these groups to report into the Sub-Committee
- Close down "T&F Groups" once goal(s) achieved
- Provide regular planning and status reporting to the BIC Executive Director
- To ensure an appropriate level of confidentiality at all times
- Periodically invite in guest speakers
- Ensure BISG and other global standards/industry bodies are kept up to date with BIC's Metadata Sub-Committee work

Applications to sit on the BIC Metadata sub-Committee:

All applications to join any BIC Committee must be made in writing using the appropriate application form. All applications will be discussed during the respective Committee's meetings (unless this process is overruled by the Chair). The composition of BIC Committees is at the discretion of BIC but should be balanced and reflect the UK book industry.
