

BIC's BATTLE OF THE LIBRARY SYSTEMS!

Open v Proprietary

The House Motion:

"Open source is about distributed innovation and will become the dominant way of producing software"

Library system vendor: JISC/SCONUL LMS study 2008

PROGRAMME:

28th November 2012
CILIP Building, London
2pm

2pm – Coffee & registration

2.20 – Welcome and introduction from Karina Luke, Executive Director, BIC

2.30 – Introduction to the teams, rules of conduct for the "Battle": Martin Palmer

Martin invites audience to vote for or against the motion

2.40 – Nick Dimant (Open Team) presents case

2.55 – Jim Burton (Proprietary Team) presents counter case and own case

3.10 – Paula Keogh and Anthony Whitford (Proprietary Team) presents case

3.25 – Mark Hughes (Open Team) presents counter case and own case

3.40 – Andrew Preater (Open Team) present case

3.55 - Will Blackburn (Proprietary team) presents counter case and own case

4.10 - Questions to the teams invited from the floor (Martin Palmer to moderate)

4.20 - Quick Refreshment break

4. 40 - Brad Whittle (Proprietary Team) presents case

4.55 - David Parkes (Open Team) presents counter case and own case

5.10 - Questions to the teams invited from the floor (Martin Palmer to moderate)

5.25 – Observations, thoughts on the day and wrap up: Guest speaker, Mick Fortune

Mick invites audience to votes for or against the motion

5.40 –Close & drinks

6.30 - END

